

Education

Boston University	Doctoral Candidate, Political Science	2020 – present
Brown University	Bachelor of Arts, African American Studies	1996 -2000

Academic Awards, Research Grants, and Fellowships

Boston University: Graduate School of Arts and Sciences: Social Science Graduate Student Summer Internship Award for placement at the Center for Antiracist Research (2021); Initiative on Cities: Early Stage Urban Research Award as co-Principal Investigator for research on mayors, policing, and protests (2021)

Brown University: English Department Preston Gurney Writing Prize for top essay by a senior class member (2000); Hanoian Memorial Award for students dedicated to improving the lives of working people (1999).

Teaching Experience

Boston University	Teaching Fellow / Discussion Section Leader / Grader	2021 – present
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PO 141 (Meade) – Introduction to Public Policy, Spring 2023 • PO/AA 308 (Slaughter) – The Politics of Race and Ethnicity, Fall 2022 • PO 313 (Einstein and Glick) – The Politics of the Wire, Spring 2022 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Guest Lecture: “Unions, Race, and American Political Development” • PO 111 (Mattioli) – Introduction to American Politics, Fall 2021

Additional Education and Training

University of Michigan: Inter-university Consortium for Political & Social Research (ICPSR) 2021 Summer Methods Institute, classes in Data Visualization and Measurement, Scaling, and Dimensional Analysis

UMass-Amherst: Institute for Social Science Research (ISSR) 2021 Summer Workshop in Network Analysis

Service Employees International Union (SEIU): Coordinator (2018), IGNITE Leadership (2015), New Media / Digital Organizing (2012), and WAVE New Organizing (2004) trainings

Other professional development: Dēmos: Race-Class Narrative Training (2018), RI Institute for Labor Studies & Research: Leadership for a Future (2003), People’s Institute for Survival and Beyond: Undoing Racism (2002), Center for Third World Organizing: Community Action Training (2001)

School for International Training: Semester abroad in Mali (1998) and Nicaragua (1999)

Academic Works-In-Progress

“Policing the Possible: A Qualitative Analysis of Mayors’ Views of Police Violence and the 2020 Black Lives Matter Protests.” Co-authored with Spencer Piston, Erin Tatz, and Nicholas Henninger.

“Racialized Organizations of the Carceral State: Evidence from Recent Ethnographies of Police, Courts, and Prisons.” Co-authored with Heather Schoenfeld and Marielis Rosa.

Recent Publications

“Monsters and Mass Politics.” Essay in Protean Magazine, August 4, 2022.

“Pessimism of the Intellect, Optimism of the Whale: Why socialists should read Herman Melville’s Moby-Dick.” Essay in Jacobin Magazine, February 6, 2022.

“The government is failing healthcare workers. Unions aren’t.” Article in The Strikewave, February 3, 2021.

Reviews of Red Plenty and The Relentless Picnic in The Drift, Mentions, Issue 3, February 3, 2021.

“The Working Dead: Reviving the Crowd as Protagonist.” Essay in LA Review of Books Blog, June 24, 2020.

“Soul searching will not stop the police murders of Black people.” Essay in Truthout, June 22, 2020.

“Poverty wages in nursing homes have accelerated the coronavirus outbreak.” Op-Ed in The Boston Globe, April 25, 2020.

“Frederick Douglass and the transformational power of courage in a fearsome world” Essay in American Philosophical Association’s Black Issues in Philosophy Blog, February 18, 2020.

“They called us ‘flat-earthers.’ But we were right.” Op-Ed in The Boston Globe, November 20, 2019.

Languages and Skills

Fully fluent in Spanish. Intermediate fluency in French.

R / R Studio statistical programming.

Work Experience

Self-Employed, Dorchester, MA

Researcher/Writer

2019-2020

Research, data analysis, and writing for union campaigns on child care affordability, child care worker wages, staffing levels at Medicaid-funded skilled nursing facilities, and collective bargaining. Grant-writing and project assistance for worker-centered and worker-driven non-profit training fund.

SEIU District 1199NE, Providence, RI

Elected Organizer

2004 - 2019

Union Organizing: Led successful new organizing campaigns of more than 1,200 caregiving workers in Rhode Island; assisted in organizing drives of tens of thousands of workers in other states; negotiated collective bargaining agreements, conducted grievance and arbitrations, and directed field, media, and community outreach campaigns; led successful direct actions, marches, picket lines and strikes.

Communications & Public Affairs: Coordinated member communications including writing, translation, and design of traditional and new media materials; piloted digital organizing on social media, email, and text messaging platforms; wrote and edited white papers, press releases, op-eds, and other public communications; trained member activists on messaging and storytelling for public events.

Electoral Campaigns: Recruited and coached member candidates to successfully run for public office including the first Dominican American woman elected to a state legislature in the United States; coordinated independent expenditure campaigns in multiple election cycles, supervising both targeted direct mail and door-to-door canvas operations.

Legislative Campaigns: Coordinated successful grassroots campaigns for RI state laws to ban mandatory overtime for hospital workers (2007); establish the right to organize for home-based child care providers (2013); and establish the right to organize for independent home health care workers (2018); participated in statewide coalitions that won paid family leave (2013) and earned sick time (2017) for hundreds of thousands of workers in Rhode Island.

Capacity-Building and Grant-Writing: Established a labor-management collaborative training fund with the RI Department of Human Services to support the educational goals of home-based child care providers; secured funding from the RI Department of Labor & Training to create a substitute pool to support child care providers' professional development and use of earned sick time benefits.

Training and Organizational Leadership: Supervised and coached staff to build member participation and power; coordinated organizing blitzes in RI and CT, training staff and members on conversation and digital organizing tools; worked with peers to create and deliver leadership development trainings to hundreds of union delegates using popular education methods; helped officers set organizational goals and priorities, develop strategic plans, build coalitions, and allocate resources effectively.

Day Care Justice Co-Op, Providence RI Organizer 2001 – 2003

Coordinated membership meetings, direct actions, trainings, and professional development in a non-profit of home-based child care providers. Responsible for multiple successful grant proposals to local, state, and regional foundations to support the Co-Op's organizing and programming.

Rhode Island Jobs with Justice Internships 1999 – 2000
Direct Action for Rights & Equality

Boards, Associations, and Volunteer Activity

BU Political Science Graduate Students Speaker Series, Co-organizer (2020 – present)
Caribbean Philosophical Association, Member (2020 – present)
Providence Student Union, Board of Directors Member (2017 to 2019)
State of Rhode Island's Permanent Legislative Commission on Child Care, Member (2001 - 2013)
Haymarket Peoples' Fund, RI Funding Panel Member (2001-2003)
Brown Student-Labor Alliance, Member (1996-2000)

Professional Recognition

Citations from the RI Governor, RI General Assembly, and the Providence City Council (2019)
Paul E. Moura Leadership Award - RI Institute for Labor Studies & Research (2006)
Sister Carol McGovern Voice for the Voiceless Award, RI Fund for Community Progress (2003)